MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE

(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 30th June, 2021/Asadha 9, 1943 (Saka).

THE ESSENTIAL DEFENCE SERVICES ORDINANCE, 2021

(No. 7 of 2021)

Promulgated by the President in the Seventy-second Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance to provide for the maintenance of essential defence services so as to secure the security of nation and the life and property of public at large and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

WHEREAS, Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action.

1. Short title and commencement. (1) This Ordinance may be called the Essential Defence Services Ordinance, 2021.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

(a) "essential defence services" means

- (I) production of defence equipment or goods ; or

[illegible]

- (II) operation or maintenance of any industrial establishment or unit engaged in production of goods or equipment required for any purpose connected with defence ; or
 - (III) repair or maintenance of products connected with defence ;
- (b) "go-slow" means the cessation of work, go-slow, sit down, stay-in, token strike, sympathetic strike or mass casual leave, by a body of persons engaged in the essential defence services, acting in combination or a concerted refusal or a refusal under a common understanding of any number of persons who are or have been so engaged to continue to work or to accept employment, and includes,
- (i) refusal to work overtime, where such work is necessary for the maintenance of the essential defence services ;
 - (ii) any other conduct which is likely to result in, or results in, cessation or retardation or disruption of work in the essential defence services.

(2) Words and expressions used herein and not defined but defined in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act.

3. Power to prohibit strikes in essential defence services. (1) If the Central Government is satisfied that in the,

- (a) public interest ; or
- (b) interest of the sovereignty and integrity of India ; or
- (c) security of any State ; or
- (d) public order ; or

[illegible]

- (e) decency ; or

- (f) morality,

it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by general or special order, prohibit strikes in the essential defence services.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) shall be published in such manner as the Central Government may deem fit to bring it to the notice of the persons affected by such order.

(3) An order made under sub-section (1) shall be in force for six months, but the Central Government may, by a like order, extend it for any period not exceeding six months, if it is satisfied that in the public interest, it is necessary or expedient so to do.

(4) Upon the issue of an order made under sub-section (1),ô

- (a) no person engaged in the essential defence services shall go or remain on strike ;
- (b) any strike declared or commenced, whether before or after the issue of such order, by persons engaged or employed in such services shall be illegal.

4. Removal of persons.—Where any order has been issued under sub-section (1) of section 3, any police officer may take all such measures as such officer may deem fit including the use of police force, if he considers necessary, to remove any person, whose presence in any area connected with the

- (a) defence equipment production services ; or
- (b) operation or maintenance of any industrial establishment or unit engaged in production or manufacturing of goods or equipment required for any purpose connected with defence ; or

5. Dismissal of employees participating in illegal strikes. (1) Any person,

- shall be liable to disciplinary action (including dismissal) in accordance with the same provisions as are applicable for the purpose of taking such disciplinary action (including dismissal) on any other ground under the terms and conditions of service applicable to him in relation to his employment.

6. Penalty for illegal strikes.—Any person, who commences a strike which is illegal under this Ordinance or goes or remains on, or otherwise takes part in, any such strike, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.

7. Penalty for instigation, etc.—Any person who instigates or incites other persons to take part in, or otherwise acts in furtherance of, a strike which is illegal under this Ordinance, shall be punishable with imprisonment

6 The J&K Official Gazette, the 28th July, 2021/6th Asad., 1943. [No. 17-1 for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to fifteen thousand rupees, or with both.

8. Penalty for giving financial aid to illegal strikes. Any person, who knowingly expends or supplies any money in furtherance or support of a strike which is illegal under this Ordinance, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to fifteen thousand rupees, or with both.

9. Power to prohibit lock-outs in any industrial establishment or unit engaged in essential defence services.—(1) If the Central Government is satisfied that in the,

- (a) public interest ; or
- (b) interest of the sovereignty and integrity of India ; or
- (c) security of any State ; or
- (d) public order ; or
- (e) decency ; or
- (f) morality,

it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may by general or special order, prohibit lock-outs in the industrial establishments or units engaged in the essential defence services.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) shall be published in such manner as the Central Government may deem fit to bring it to the notice or the persons affected by such order.

(3) An order made under sub-section (1) shall be in force for six months, but the Central Government may, by a like order extend it for any period not exceeding six months, if it is satisfied that in the public interest, it is necessary so to do.

- (a) no employer engaged in the essential defence services shall commence any lock-out ; and

- (b) any lock-out declared or commenced, whether before or after the issue of such order, by any employer engaged in the essential defence services shall be illegal.

(5) Any employer of an industrial establishment or unit engaged in the essential defence services, who commences, continues, or otherwise acts in furtherance of a lock-out which is illegal under this section, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.

... Power to prohibit lay-off in any industrial establishment or unit engaged in essential defence services.—(1) If the Central Government is satisfied that in the,

- (a) public interest ; or

- (b) interest of the sovereignty and integrity of India ; or

- (c) security of any State ; or

- (d) public order ; or

- (e) decency ; or

- (f) morality,

it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by general or special order, prohibit lay-off, on any ground other than shortage of power or natural calamity, of any workman (other than a badli workman or a casual workman) whose name is borne on the muster rolls of any industrial establishment or unit engaged in the essential defence services.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) shall be published in such manner as the Central Government may deem fit to bring it to the notice

(3) An order made under sub-section (1) shall be in force for six months, but the Central Government may, by a like order, extend it for any period not exceeding six months, if it is satisfied that in the public interest, it is necessary or expedient so to do.

(a) no employer in relation to an establishment to which such order applies shall lay-off or continue the lay-off any workman (other than a badli workman or a casual workman) whose name is borne on the muster rolls of any industrial establishment or unit engaged in the essential defence services, unless such lay-off is due to shortage of power or natural calamity, and any laying-off or continuation of laying-off shall, unless such laying-off or continuation of laying-off is due to shortage of power or natural calamity, be illegal ;

(5) Any employer of an industrial establishment or unit engaged in the essential defence services, who lays-off or continues the laying-off of any workman shall, if such laying-off or continuation of laying-off is illegal under this section, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.

11. Power to arrest without warrant.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) any police officer may arrest without warrant any person who is reasonably suspected to have committed any offence under this Ordinance.

12. Offences to be tried summarily. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) all

Vs.

Suresh Jain (MD) M/s. CXL Titon Electronics Pvt. Ltd., Gupta Arcade, Plot No. 14, Mayapuri Industrial Area, Phase-II, New Delhi-64

.....Respondent

ôôôôô

4. Respondent was served with summons through registered post. Registered letter receipts dated 03-07-2019, 21-08-2019 and 16-10-2019 are present on the file. An Advocate Mr. Aditya Gupta appeared on behalf

4 The J&K Govt. Gazette, 4th May, 2021/14th Vai., 1943. [No. 5-2 ôôôôôôôôôô ôô ôôô ô
of Respondent on 23-10-2019, and sought time to file Authority letter/Attorney. But he did not appear later. Finally ex partee proceedings were initiated against the Respondent vide order dated 10-12-2019.

5. Petitioner led the evidence in ex partee by way of affidavits by himself and Sumit Kumar S/o Kuldeep Kumar R/o Flat No. 47, Block-12, Lane No. 9, Jagti Township, Nagrota.

6. In his statement, Petitioner deposes the same as is stated by him in this petition. And the other witness deposes that he knew the petitioner personally, petitioner was working in the Company, and was an employee of Mis. CXL Titon Electronics Pvt. Ltd.

7. I have gone through this petition as well as the documents available on record, and the statements of Petitioner's witnesses.

8. Sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 2-A Industrial Disputes Act provide that a workman may present an application directly to a Labour Court or Tribunal for adjudication of a dispute relating to his discharge, dismissal, retrenchment or termination otherwise, after the expiry of 45 days from the date he made the application to the Conciliation Officer, for conciliation of dispute, and on receipt of such application, the Labour Court or Tribunal shall have the powers and jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the dispute, as if it was a dispute referred to it by the appropriate Government in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

9. The conditions specified in sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 2-A Industrial Disputes Act, are satisfied in the present case.

10. Straightaway it is noted that the material tendered by the petitioner has gone un rebutted in the absence of any opposition by the respondent who has been proceeded ex partee.

11. The petitioner has supported his submissions by his own statement, copy of an offer of employment dated 06-10-2017 issued by CXL Titon Electronics Pvt. Ltd stating his salary, hotel allowance, DA allowance, and conveyance allowance, another copy of an offer of employment dated December 12, 2017 through an email from sales cxl@gmail.com to rameshmahajancxl@gmail, another appointment order dated 01-12-2017, copies of his tour programme, travelling expenses and work done by Ramesh

13. So far as termination of petitioner is concerned, the same is stated by the petitioner himself, to be dated 10-04-2018. Also the petitioner himself states that the period of his probation with the respondent was 1st December, 2017 to 28th February, 2018, and that the Company did not issue his confirmation letter, and rather issued an advise for enhancing the performance followed by the termination letter dated 10-04-2018.

14. So it is clear that the respondent did not confirm the petitioner after his termination, and rather advised him to enhance the performance. When the performance was not up to the mark, the service of the petitioner was terminated. It is noteworthy that the appointment order/s tendered by the petitioner itself/themself state that the period of probation of petitioner could be extended. When the service of petitioner was not confirmed, and he was given an advise to enhance his performance, the said circumstances imply that the probation period of the petitioner was extended though without a written order in this regard. But there was not even any confirmation order issued by the respondent.

17. In view of the circumstance noted herein before, the petitioner is held entitled to the wages from October 23, 2017 to November, 2017, March, 2018 and the period from 1st to 10th April, 2018.

So, the petitioner is held entitled to the TA/DA expenses of December, 2017 to April, 2018 amounting to Rs. 49780/-. But he is not entitled to reinstatement into the service of respondent.

18. The petitioner has established that the rate of salary payable to him was Rs. 25000/- per month. By presenting calculation sheets, he has further established the TA/DA payable to him which comes out to be Rs. 49820/-. So, the respondent shall pay the unpaid salary as noted herein before @ Rs. 25000/- per month, and TA/DA amounting to Rs. 49780/- to the petitioner within a period of two months.
