It has come in his failure report that it cannot be ascertained in absence of record that applicant has given any consent of leaving job or not hence referred matter for adjudication.

Heard. Considered written arguments filed by him as well, written submissions/objections filed by non-applicants/respondents and also reply furnished by them before Conciliation Officer, wherein it is specifically stated that Dispute under Section 2-A is maintainable in the event of an employee being terminated and in the instant case there is no termination but there was an offer of appointment to applicant to serve in Delhi Office, hence Dispute is not maintainable as applicant has no cause of action against the answering respondents.

Respondent's tangible demurrer is that petitioner is not terminated from services and the present dispute is not an industrial dispute in terms of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947.

According to respondent No. 1 an e-mail was received by the company on 25-01-2014 from non-applicant No. 2 that Sajjad Gull has voluntarily resigned and his last working day was on 07-01-2014 and another email was received on 07-05-2014 from the applicant wherein he asked for his provident fund which could have been asked once their relationship cease to exist either by way of termination or resignation and in his email seeking withdrawal of the Provident Fund, the applicant has himself admitted that he has resigned from active services, hence the assertion of petitioner with respect to termination of services is negated.

Reference by Conciliation Officer for adjudication to this Tribunal is to be decided on following issues :

1. Whether petitioner/applicant has voluntarily resigned from service of non-applicant No. 1 & 2 or his services were terminated.
2. Whether applicant/petitioner is entitled to wages from the date he was terminated.
3. Whether petitioner/applicant is entitled to the wages from the date he has not been paid.
