In the Matter of :□Petition under section 33 C-(2) of Industrial Disputes Act read with section 15 of Payment of Wages Act, 1936 and section 82 of Factories Act for release of D. A., COLA Arrears w. e. f. 01-01-2006 to 30-06-2010 which amounts of Rs. 3,00,121/- lying balance from non-applicants.

Shri Adv. Aijaz for Petitioner.

Respondents in ex parte.

Judgment/Award

Petition under section 33 C-2 of Industrial Act read with section 15 of Payment of Wages Act, 1936 and section 82 of Factories Act for release of D.A., COLA Arrears w. e. f. 01-01-2006 to 30-06-2010 has been filed by Applicant/Petitioner herein.

Synopsis of the present case is that petitioner/applicant allegedly was employee of respondent company for last 29 years under Token No. 532 as Assistant Manager was retired on 30-06-2010. Allegedly D. A., COLA Arrears due to applicant/petitioner w. e. f. 01-01-2006 to 30-06-2010 has not been released by non-applicants till date thereby causing much hardships to him for his survival as after retirement on 30-06-2010, he did not get anything due to him :□

1. This is further case of the petitioner that even effect of 6th Pay Commission was given from 01-01-2006 but non-applicant released only 6th Pay Commission till 2009 in the shape of ₹Cementøbut other arrears were retained.
2. Allegedly non-applicant has paid arrears of wages to other employees except applicant and devoid the same without any justification being employer of petitioner(workman).
3. Respondents in their response dated 13-11-2018 categorically stated that all retrial dues of the petitioner has been paid except D.A., COLA. Besides company is trying to reconstruct the record which was burnt in fire on 31-05-2015. Respondent's tangible case is that release of D. A., COLA Arrears is subject to availability of funds and approval of Board of Directors. More over company was in financial crisis and is running in loss hence could not meet the expenditure of D. A., COLA Arrears. Besides company has to generate its own resources to meet all expenditures as company was in financial crisis and is running in loss.

4. Adjudication was on the following issues set up on 25-06-2019 those are reproduced as under :
 - I i. Whether the applicant is entitled to 6th Pay Commission D. A., COLA Arrears w. e. f. 01-01-2006 to 30-06-2010 ?
OPP.
 - II ii. Relief : To what relief, petitioner is entitled thereto ? OPP.

The matter as projected through the claim petition before this tribunal can be precisely adumbrated these facts those are uncontroverted between the respondents are that petitioner was employee of respondent to whom D. A., COLA etc. is still due but due to paucity of funds could not be paid.

5. The respondent's tangible case is that the petitioner is not entitled to any cash relief but shall be paid only cement in view of High Court Judgment. Petitioner examined himself in witness box in the shape of affidavit but respondent absented themselves and were consequently set ex parte on 12-05-2022.
6. Heard LC for petitioner at length. Considered various pleas put forth herein and also considered affidavit evidence of petitioner as well other material on record, since there is no evidence on behalf of respondents in rebuttal, hence evidence of plaintiff goes un rebutted.
7. Perused the record on file. Parties have reiterated what they have pleaded and supported their respective version. As the case goes, precisely stating, there is voluminous documentary evidence that petitioner workmen was working with respondents under Token No. 418 and was not paid below COLA/D.A. Arrears etc.

Petitioner during course of proceedings moved application seeking rectification in section 13 as section 33C (2), which is allowed.

I shall adorn each point vehemently agitated by the LC. for petitioner. The most canvassed and pivotal point of discussion is whether the petitioner is entitled to relief as prayed for. The onus to prove that petitioner was entitled to D.A. Arrears w. e. f. 01-01-2006 to 30-06-2010 was on petitioner and petitioner by way of affidavit evidence and other documents placed on record proved his case which fact is also admitted by respondent company, hence issue 1 and 2 are also decided in favour of the petitioner. Now the moot question is as to how much respondents shall pay ?

Since in petitioner's own saying the petitioner was paid arrears of Sixth Pay Commission in form of cement till 2009 and now since respondents has admitted claim of petitioner, hence they are directed to pay remaining amount due to petitioner without any further loss of time within two months. Thus both issues are accordingly decided. Let this amount be paid in form of cement in light of Hon'ble High Court Judgment in SWP No. 641/2011.

Resultantly it is held that the petitioner is entitled to relief as prayed for as sought through their claim petition. Accordingly Award is passed. The award may be published accordingly under rules in Government Press without any further delay. File be consigned to records after its due completion.
