14-05-2024

1. This criminal challan has been presented in this Court after getting the same transferred from the Court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ramban and same is pending for disposal before this Court.
2. Heard and gone through the contents of challan and documents allied thereto. Whereas, since the first date of hearing till today accused persons are continuously absent in this case against them Warrants were issued regularly. On last date also Non Bailable warrant was issued against the accused through SSP, Ramban and in case of non execution Tamili concerned was directed to remain present in person.
3. Tamili concerned has caused presence and his statement has been recorded in which he stated that he was deputed by SSP

Ramban and during search of the accused persons he reached their homes 5/6 times but they were not found and enquiry made from their family members, it is found that both the accused persons not found. He has prayed that he made best efforts to arrest the accused persons but they could not be arrested for said reasons. On going through the material on record and statement of Tamili it is prima facie indicated that accused persons are concealing themselves and it is impossible to arrest them as they are avoiding arrest and there is no immediate prospects to arrest the accused persons and produce them in the Court. Now, the question is how the general warrant of arrest can be executed against the accused persons. Prima facie I am satisfied that accused persons are concealing themselves and evading arrest and there is no immediate prospects to arrest them. So the accused persons are proceeded in terms of Section 299 Cr. P.C. Office to issue general warrant of arrest against the accused persons which shall be sent to Incharge Police Station, Ramban and SSP, Ramban authorizing them to arrest the accused whenever and wherever they found with U.T. of J&K and produce them before this Court.
