This Bill seeks to—

(a) provide for the establishment of Private Universities by sponsoring bodies that meet the specified criteria;

(b) establish a Regulatory Authority to oversee the functioning of Private Universities;

(c) prescribe the governance structure of Private Universities to ensure accountability;

(d) mandate compliance with UGC regulations and academic standards;

(e) provide for reservation of seats for local students and scholarships for the needy;

(f) prohibit capitation fee and other malpractices;

(g) provide for inspection, monitoring, and penalties for non-compliance;

(h) ensure protection of interests of students in case of dissolution of a Private University.
